HISTORIC ELEGANCE

in the Heart of Balboa Park

The Prado at Balboa Park is a National Historic Landmark. Originally built in 1915, the House of Hospitality building was part of the Panama-California Exposition, a 2-year exhibition in Balboa Park celebrating the opening of the Panama Canal. The building's architecture, artwork and fountains showcase Spanish, Moorish and Mexican design elements including hand-painted, wooden stencil designs on doors, ceilings and beams. The historic space offers more than 22,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor event space including lush gardens, romantic terraces and an elegant Grand Ballroom. Significant restoration work has been done over the years to preserve the historic beauty of this San Diego gem.
